

Financial Policy

Please note, although Chiropractic manipulation of the spine is generally a Medicare covered service when performed in a clinic, care delivered in your home by a Doctor of Chiropractic is not a Medicare eligible service. Examinations, acupuncture, massage and health and wellness advice delivered by a Doctor of Chiropractic are not Medicare eligible services under any conditions. Neither Medicare, nor a supplemental plan will cover the cost of our services.

We accept all major credit cards, personal checks and cash. We can accept payment through PayPal and Venmo. A receipt for services will be provided. Arrangements can be made should you require a superbill or any other additional documentation.
